Director of Music Opportunity

The Deerfield Community Church, in Deerfield NH, an Open and Affirming community of faith in the United Church of Christ is looking for our next director of music. We are a dynamic congregation that is open to both traditional and contemporary forms of worship and music.

The current music programs include the Chancel Choir (traditional choir that performs two times per month), a children's choir (that performs during months with 5 Sundays), Jubilee (a contemporary choir made up of all lovers of music regardless of ability to read music directed by others) that performs once per month, and Grace Notes (a three-piece vocal group directed by others) that performs once per month.

Typical responsibilities will include

- playing a prelude and postlude for all Sunday worship services that begin at 9:00am on Sunday's.
- conducting the Chancel Choir and Children's Choir (current rehearsal times are Thursday evenings for the Chancel Choir and immediately after worship for the Children's Choir)
- Work with the pastor and worship deacon to program hymns that are complementary to the weeks message and overall arc of the worship season.
- Provide music for all special services outside of normal Sunday services (i.e. Christmas, Easter, Good Friday, Maundy Thursday, etc.)
- You will be given first right of refusal for all funeral and wedding activities and will be paid directly by the third party for these events.

About the Church

The church has both a grand piano and a single manual pipe organ that will be expected to be played on a regular basis. There are also several very talented musicians in the congregation that play a variety of instruments that can be utilized throughout the year.

Salary is negotiable, this is a part time position.
